Investor Profile

Mobius Investment Trust plc has no required minimum holding period and is designed for long-term investment (at least five years). MMIT invests in equities and it may therefore be subject to volatility. This requires an elevated risk tolerance.

Opportunities

- + Focus on dynamic small and mid-sized companies in many of the fastest growing economies in the world
- + Fundamental bottom-up research process identifies resilient business models which are undervalued and mispriced
- + Lower ESG standards in emerging and frontier markets offer a unique opportunity for active engagement approach
- + Create value by delivering a clear ESG pathway for our portfolio companies
- + Concentrated portfolio allows a customised engagement strategy for each company

Risks

- MMIT pursues an active management style. Its performance may therefore deviate considerably from that of a comparable market return
- Pronounced fluctuations in price are characteristic of emerging and frontier economies. Other characteristics include specific risks such as lower market transparency, regulatory hurdles, illiquidity of markets as well as political and social challenges
- Investments via Shanghai or Shenzhen Stock Connect are subject to additional risks, quota limitations, custody risk, clearing/settlement risk and counterparty risk
- Focusing intentionally on stocks in small and medium cap companies may entail additional risks (e.g. lower liquidity)

Commentary

While emerging markets outperformed developed markets during the month of August as China announced additional stimulus measures to support the struggling economy, the recovery remains fragile and uncertain for now. After a robust start to the month, the hawkish inflation speech by Fed chairman Jerome Powell added to fears about a looming global recession and resulted in weaker market performance towards the end of the period. During August, emerging markets posted their first month of portfolio inflows after five consecutive months of outflows.

The net asset value (NAV) and share price of the Mobius Investment Trust (MMIT) increased by 5.3% and 3.2% respectively while the discount stood at 3.8% at month-end. As portfolio companies continued to publish their Q2 2022 earnings reports, several of MMIT's holdings reported consensus-beating results. Software company EPAM Systems beat Q2 consensus estimated earnings by 39%, leading to the upward revision of the 2022 forecast by 17%, post results. Revenues at EPAM have increased by 36% YoY as the firm has seen strong demand tailwinds. EPAM is a recent addition to MMIT's concentrated portfolio of high-conviction ideas.

The strongest contributors to August performance were software company EPAM Systems (+2.2%), Taiwanese IC design house eMemory (+0.8%) and Brazilian software business TOTVS (+0.7%). The main detractors were Hong Kong-based EC Healthcare (-1.1%), followed by Parade Technologies (-0.6%) from Taiwan and Korean health care firm Classys (-0.3%).
